

Tyson & Mendes Adds Experienced Casualty and Liability Partner in Tampa

Originally published by

ATTORNEY AT LAW
MAGAZINE

June 21, 2022

TAMPA, FL—Nationwide civil litigation defense firm Tyson & Mendes LLP has announced Charles Reynolds joined the firm as a new partner in its Tampa office. Reynolds brings over 30 years of experience defending clients in matters relating to products and premises liability, construction defects, medical malpractice, and toxic torts.

Reynolds joins Tyson & Mendes from Trenham Law where he was senior counsel in the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Group. Prior to Trenham Law, he spent 25 years as partner and department chair for casualty and liability litigation at insurance defense firm Butler Weihmuller Katz Craig LLP.