

Tyson & Mendes Announces New Partner Mark Shanberg

📅 February 11, 2022 📍 Spotlight News, Talk of the Town Illinois

CHICAGO, IL—National civil defense firm Tyson & Mendes LLP announced today five promotions from senior counsel to partner for attorneys Haldon Greenberg, Emily Meeson, Alla Policastro, Christopher Schon, and Mark Shanberg.

Shanberg is a seasoned litigation attorney in the firm’s Chicago office. Entering his 30th year of practice, Shanberg has successfully defended clients in high exposure and catastrophic personal injury cases involving medical liability, construction liability, product liability, trucking and transportation liability and premises liability. He has deposed more than one hundred fifty liability and damages witnesses. He has first-chair trial experience, served as lead counsel in more than one hundred mandatory arbitrations, and has successfully helped clients navigate voluntary mediations. He earned his Juris Doctor in 1992 from the University of Illinois Chicago School of Law, formally known as the John Marshall Law School.
