Anna K. Sasaki is an Associate at Tyson & Mendes' Orange County office. Her practice focuses on a wide variety of personal injury-related civil litigation matters.

Ms. Sasaki was part of Tyson and Mendes' Summer clerkship program in 2021 and gained hands-on experience with many stages of litigation. She also participated in her law school's Civil Litigation Clinic and received training on the plaintiff's side of cases involving sexual harassment, products liability, and landlord-tenant disputes.

Ms. Sasaki received her J.D. with a certificate in Trial Advocacy from the Arizona State University College of Law in 2022, where she competed in the ABA's National Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Competition and received an individual award as an oralist. She also served on the Executive Board of the Asian-Pacific American Law Student Association. Ms. Sasaki obtained her B.S. in Business Administration – Marketing from California State University, Long Beach, in 2019. During undergrad, Ms. Sasaki competed in inter-collegiate moot court and received the 2019 CSULB George and Beverly August Moot Court Achievement Award.

In her free time, Ms. Sasaki enjoys spending time with her dog, trying to befriend neighborhood cats, and taste-testing new Trader Joe's products. She also will never turn down an opportunity to explore a thrift store.
