Ashley L. Hollingsworth is a Partner in Tyson & Mendes' Jacksonville office. Her practice focuses on general liability, transportation, automobile negligence, wrongful death, premise liability, and construction defect matters.

Prior to joining Tyson & Mendes, Ms. Hollingsworth was a partner at a large Florida insurance defense firm expanding her experience of litigating matters in admitted liability and disputed liability cases. Ms. Hollingsworth also has experience in tax compliance, family law matters, and previously served as an assistant public defender where she litigated as a first and second chair on misdemeanor and felony jury trials. Ms. Hollingsworth is a member of the Jacksonville Bar Association and Jacksonville Women Lawyers Association. She is admitted to practice in Florida since 2013 and is a good standing member of The Florida Bar.

Ms. Hollingsworth obtained her J.D. from the Florida Coastal School of Law in 2013 and served as President for the Asian Pacific American Law Association. She earned her B.A. in Political Science from University of Hawaii at Manoa and graduated cum laude.

In her free time, Ms. Hollingsworth enjoys spending time with her husband, spontaneous well-planned road trips, and visiting her family in Hawaii. She believes not all coffee beans are the same and searches for the best coffee and coffee bean wherever she travels.
