Brooke Park is Senior Counsel in Tyson & Mendes' Los Angeles office. Her practice focuses on general liability and commercial litigation.

Ms. Park has extensive litigation experience, including representing individuals and businesses as both plaintiff's counsel and defense counsel. This includes experience in pre-litigation negotiation/resolution, post-judgment recovery, property damage subrogation, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, and the Fair Credit Reporting Act. Prior to joining Tyson & Mendes, she gained experience as panel counsel at a national litigation firm and as staff counsel for a national insurance carrier.

Ms. Park is admitted to practice law before all courts in the State of California and the United States District Court, Central District of California. She obtained her B.A. in International Studies from the University of California, Irvine. Ms. Park obtained her J.D. from Western State University, COL, and a Business Law Certificate from WSU's Business Law Center. While attending law school, Ms. Park engaged in student government as a 3L representative and as a member of the Grievance Committee. She also served as Secretary for the Christian Legal Society, the Social Chair for the Entertainment & Sports Law Society, and the Scholarship Chair for the APALSA-Asian Pacific American Legal Student Association.

In her free time, Ms. Park enjoys spending time with family and friends, being outdoors, and traveling.
