Bryan Ferrara is Senior Counsel in Tyson & Mendes' New York office. His practice focuses on insurance defense, construction litigation, commercial motor vehicle litigation, casualty litigation, general civil litigation, and professional liability defense for architects and engineers.

Before joining Tyson & Mendes, Mr. Ferrara worked at a large firm in New York where his practice focused on insurance defense. He is admitted to practice law in New York, and the United States District Court in the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York. Mr. Ferrara is a member of the Brooklyn Bar Association.

Mr. Ferrara received his J.D. from St. John's University School of Law. While he was in law school, he received CALI Awards in his International Business Transactions course and his Professional Responsibility course. Mr. Ferrara received his B.A. from the State University of New York College at Westbury, where he majored in Psychology.

During his free time, Mr. Ferrara enjoys rooting on his beloved Buffalo Bills, New York Mets, and New York Knicks.
