

CATHERINE CRAWLEY

PARTNER

View Online Profile

✉ ccrawley@tysonmendes.com

☎ FL: (904) 659-9092

📍 Jacksonville, FL

Catherine Crawley is a Partner in Tyson & Mendes' Jacksonville office. Her practice focuses premises liability, transportation and trucking, construction, professional liability, negligent security, and cyber claims.

Prior to joining Tyson & Mendes, Ms. Crawley was a Partner at a large Florida firm. She is admitted to practice law in Florida.

Ms. Crawley obtained her J.D. from the Georgia State University College of Law. During her time in law school, she served as an Honors Extern with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Ms. Crawley was the President of the Association of Women Law Students, and a graduate research assistant for Trial Practice. In addition, she was a Pupil with the Logan E. Bleckley Inn of Court and a member of the GSU College of Law Mock Trial team. Ms. Crawley also received the NAI Award in Advanced Evidence. Prior to law school, she earned her undergraduate degree in Political Science from Emory University. Ms. Crawley has been recognized from Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® since 2023 for her work with transportation law.

When she is not at work, Ms. Crawley enjoys traveling with her husband and being active around Jacksonville with their two corgis.