Chase Goodman is Senior Counsel at Tyson & Mendes' San Diego office. Mr. Goodman primary practice focuses on catastrophic accidents, personal injury, premise liability, and business litigation.

Mr. Goodman has extensive litigation experience and has consistently obtained successful results for his clients in both state and federal courts in Southern California. Mr. Goodman has a track record of success in every stage of litigation, disposing of claims and minimizing damages for his clients. Mr. Goodman has successfully dismissed cases and summons alike in the earliest stages of litigation. Mr. Goodman is a proficient negotiator, having settled over one hundred cases. Mr. Goodman is an adept trial attorney and has won multiple trials for his clients. One of Mr. Goodman's recent cases involved a claim of permanent disfigurement and severe injury. After Mr. Goodman's trial performance, the jury awarded the plaintiff nominal damages well below the defendant's statutory offer to compromise.

Mr. Goodman obtained his LL.M in Intellectual Property from DePaul University College of Law. He obtained his J.D. from Thomas Jefferson School of Law where he received the Witkin Excellence for the Future Award and CALI Award for Academic Excellence. He obtained his B.A. from the University of Saint Thomas where he consistently made the Dean's list.

In his free time, Mr. Goodman enjoys spending time with his wife and daughter. He also enjoys the outdoors, concerts, and cheering for San Diego and Minnesota sports teams.
