📍 Jacksonville, FL

Jordan Harirchi is an Associate at Tyson and Mendes' Jacksonville office. His practice focuses on insurance defense, premises liability, negligent security, and general and automobile negligence.

Mr. Harirchi has been a litigator his entire legal career, and he melds experience with creativity, attention to detail, efficiency, and a personal touch to best accomplish his clients' goals. Prior to joining Tyson and Mendes, Mr. Harirchi began his legal career working at a boutique firm in South Florida specializing in securities and investment fraud litigation through the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) arbitration. He also worked for a large Florida insurance defense firm, where he handled cases for major insurance carriers and their insureds. He also worked at the Las Vegas office of a national firm defending mortgage lenders, servicers, and other financial services providers.

Mr. Harirchi obtained his J.D. from Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, with a concentration in Business and Entrepreneurship. He attended the University of North Florida and studied journalism, working as an intern reporter for the Florida Times-Union.

In his free time, Mr. Harirchi enjoys spending time with his family, trying new restaurants, being outside, attending stand-up comedy and improv shows, and watching football (Go Jaguars!). Mr. Harirchi was born and raised in Jacksonville and has lived the significant majority of his life in the Sunshine State.
