Jordanae Walker is an Associate in Tyson & Mendes' Orange County office.

Prior to joining Tyson & Mendes, Ms. Walker served as Trial Counsel for the State Bar of California. There, Ms. Walker honed her skills in litigation and legal strategy working on attorney misconduct cases. Ms. Walker also worked as a passionate advocate for families as an attorney with the Los Angeles Dependency Lawyers. She tirelessly fought to reunite parents with their children who were detained by the Department of Children and Family Services. Her dedication and commitment to her clients resulted in numerous successful reunifications.

Ms. Walker obtained her J.D. from Loyola Law School in 2019. She completed her B.A. in Political Science with a minor in Business Law at the University of Southern California in 2016. While at USC, she was an active member of the Trojan Marching Band and Moot Court.

Outside of her professional endeavors, Ms. Walker enjoys exploring the world through travel, cherishing quality time with her family, and indulging in the occasional game of bowling.
