Maihuong Ta is Senior Counsel at Tyson & Mendes' Northern California office. Her practice focuses on general liability and civil litigation.

Ms. Ta has experience representing both individuals and institutional clients in a wide range of practice areas, on both plaintiffs' and defense matters. She has successfully achieved favorable resolutions through mediation and negotiated settlements. Ms. Ta is skilled in stepping into a case mid-litigation and quickly evaluating risk and potential exposure, while staying focused on the client's objective.

Ms. Ta has been practicing law in California since 2015. She obtained her J.D. from University of La Verne, College of Law. While in law school, she participated in Trial Team and served as a Treasurer for the Asian American Law Student Association. She also clerked for the Federal Public Defender's office and volunteered at the Center for the Pacific Asian Family to advocate for sexual assault and domestic abused victims. Prior to law school, she obtained her B.S. from University of California, Davis, where she studied pre-med.

In her free time, Mr. Ta enjoys traveling and learning about various cultures and cuisine with her friends and family. She also enjoys attending concerts, yoga classes, and Pilates classes.
